Dr. R. F. Monteith, R. C. Clinic Head, Dies in San Mateo

Dr. Robert Fisher Monteith, who had been a practicing physician in Redwood City since 1931, died at Mills Memorial Hospital in San Mateo Tuesday at 6:30 a.m. He would have been 43 years of age on Apr. 19.

Dr. Monteith, who had operated the Monteith Clinic on Arguello St. at Bradford St. since 1941, had been in the hospital two weeks. His attending physician, Dr. Rexford McBride of Burlingame, a longtime friend, said he was suffering from myelogenous leukemia.

After serving his interneship at the Southern Pacific Hospital in San Francisco, he was resident physician at Mills Memorial Hospital for eight months. Upon coming to Redwood City he was associated with Dr. Harry E. Mason until he built his own clinic.

Dr. Monteith was past president of the San Mateo County Medical Society, and a member of the California Medical Assn., San Mateo County Sanity Commission, Menlo Country Club, Redwood City Lodge 168, Free and Accepted Masons.

He was graduated from the Rush Medical School in Chicago in 1929. He was a general practice physician and surgeon.

Dr. Monteith was the husband of Mrs. Helen F. Monteith, father of Robert C. and Philip H. Monteith of Redwood City; son of Mrs. Winifred Nelson and brother of Thomas E. Monteith, both of Marshalltown, Ia., and stepbrother of Charles Nelson, who is now in Arabia. The family home here is 1021 Edgewood Rd.

He was a native of Marshalltown, Ia.

Funeral services will be conducted Friday at 2 p.m. at the First Congregational Church, with the Rev. Charles E. Ward officiating. Graveside services will be held at Alta Mesa Memorial Park by the Masonic Lodge. Friends may call at the Franklin & Crowe Mortuary, which is handling funeral arrangements, until 11 a.m. Friday.

Dr. William Miles has been an assistant to Dr. Monteith at the clinic for eight months.

Ward Stores Urge Garden Planting

"This month," states Ray Flood, Montgomery Ward store manager, "we are taking space in virtually every newspaper ad to urge the people in this community to plant bigger victory gardens . . . and to plant them now.

"In normal times," Flood stated, "we would now be promoting our annual spring sale with pages of newspaper advertising. We have found year after year that newspaper space is a most economical way of telling our customers of the Ward Week values.

"This year, merchandise shortages make it impossible to hold a nation-wide sale like Ward Week, but we are continuing to use newspaper advertising to present our spring merchandise story to the public and to support government sponsored appeals."

On a nation-wide basis Mr. Flood stated that Montgomery Ward is one of the largest users of newspaper space. "During this month of April alone," he said, "Montgomery Ward stores will spend more than one-half million dollars on newspaper advertising, and this month's support of the National Victory Garden program is one of a series of government sponsored appeals that the company plans to back with promotion by its stores."

He was crushed against the back of his car, into which he was loading garden tools and plants, when Miss Hoover lost control of her car after being burned by a cigaret lighter handed her by her companion, Miss Joan Law.

Miss Hoover was not held. The car she was driving was registered to the estate of Lou Henry Hoover, her late grandmother.

Mr. Ridgaway, whose home was at 716 Colorado Ave., had been a resident of Palo Alto for the past 22 years. He was born in Kerrville, Tex., 63 years ago. He was employed here as a gardener.

Funeral services took place Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock at the Tinney Funeral Home. Interment was at Alta Mesa Mesa Cemetery.

Two Killed, Three Injured In Combat

News that their son, S/Sgt. William R. Steele, was killed in a crash in Eastern France in January, was received this week by Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Steele of 44 Duane St.

Sergeant Steele, overseas for nearly two years, was previously reported missing in action by the War Department.

The telegram confirming his death gave no details.

A student at Sequoia High School and San Mateo Junior College before entering the service in January, 1941, the 25-year-old airplane mechanic was believed to be serving with the Ninth Air Force.

He went overseas in June, 1943, landing in England after having been stationed at Moffett Field, Chanute Field, Ill., and other stations since his enlistment at Monterey.

In addition to his parents, he leaves two sisters, Mrs. G. S. Maloney and Helen Steele.

First Lt. Alfred Lewis Richmond, 30, was killed on Luzon, Feb. 10. In a letter received by his mother and step-father, Mr. and Mrs. Franz Grundemann, of 1518 Bay Rd., Ravenswood Villas, East Palo Alto.

A fellow officer wrote:

"He was commanding his company and leading them in an attack. An enemy shell struck the ground nearby and one of the fragments hit him in the chest. He leaves many friends behind . . ."

Beside his mother he is survived by a brother, William C. Richmond of Chicago, and Scott Grundemann, a student at Ravenswood School.

His mother also received a letter signed by Gen. Douglas MacArthur, paying tribute to Lieutenant Richmond.

Serving with the Third Army, the infantryman went overseas in December, having entered the service in July, 1944.

A graduate of Burlingame High School and a former student of the San Rafael Military Academy, Gaylord was employed in San Mateo before his induction.

His children, Robert Lee and Katharyn Elizabeth, reside with their mother in Belmont.

Former R. C. Lawyer Named Anchorage Mayor

John E. Manders, former Redwood City attorney and one-time candidate for San Mateo County Superior Court judge, has been elected mayor of Anchorage, Alaska, it was reported on the Peninsula today.

Manders, who has been in Alaska seven years, polled 660 votes to 330 votes for his incumbent opponent, Ray Wolfe, according to a report by Suerior Court Judge Thomas J. Foley of San Francisco. Last year Manders was nominated on the Republican ticket as a delegate to Congress in Washington from Alaska.

Manders, who lived for years in Atherton, was a partner in the Bullock & Manders law firm in Redwood City. In 1932, while a resident of Burlingame, he was a candidate for superior court judge in San Mateo County.

Manders' son, Capt. John M. (Jack) Manders, Sequoia High School graduate, was killed in heroic air action in the South Pacific war theater early last year.

Boy Scout Paper Drive Fills Three Railroad Box Cars

Despite howling winds and steady drizzles which hampered collections, the city-wide paper drive was declared a success Monday by Chet Wilson, assistant county Scout executive, and Frank DePatta, city salvage chairman. Three railroad cars at the Southern Pacific siding were filled and ready to roll.

With a total poundage as yet undetermined, the drive continued all day Sunday. More than 500 Boy Scouts and Cubs from Redwood City, Woodside, East Palo Alto, Ravenswood and North Fair Oaks toiled from early morning, piling stacks of paper, throwing it on trucks and unloading the bundles into the side of the SP cars.

Eight trucks were donated by Redwood City firms and several unidentified residents attached trailers to their cars and made numerous trips to collect the waste paper. Two trucks owned by the city were used: one each from the Towne Motor Co., West Bay Motors, Territo's Market, Davies Auto Co., Gray-Thorning Lumber Co. and Red Feather Products.

Cub Pack 3 and Troop 103 of East Palo Alto were responsible for collecting 45,365 pounds of paper. Troops from the southern end of the county had their own trucks and had been gathering paper for several weeks under the leadership of the cub and scoutmasters.

"We wish to thank the people of this area for their co-operation in the drive," DePatta said today. "In spite of the weather being against us, we collected many thousands of pounds of vitally needed paper."

Each Scout and Cub participating in the drive will receive a General Eisenhower Medal. The bronze medal, suspended from a red and white ribbon, bears a picture of the general with the inscription "War Service—1945." On the reverse of the medal are the words "Awarded for extraordinary patriotic achievement in the Boy Scout-General Eisenhower campaign."

A genuine shell case that carried a 75 mm. shell and has been returned from a European battlefield will be awarded to packs and troops collecting over 1000 pounds of paper. The awards will probably take place during a special ceremony this week.

Court Rejects Alimony Plea

The State Supreme Court Tuesday refused to grant a writ of prohibition sought by Edward W. Ballantine to restrain a court order that he pay alimony to Mary T. Ballantine, who won divorces in Redwood City and Reno.

In the decree granted in San Mateo County Superior Court Sept. 10, 1943, Mrs. Ballantine was given $150 a month alimony. The following year she accused her husband of being $900 in arrears. The court held he could afford $250 of this amount and ordered him to make payment in five days or go to jail.

Ballantine sought by the writ of prohibition to avoid payment.

At the time of the divorce, Mrs. Ballantine was listed as a resident of San Mateo County. Her husband then was declared to be making more than $100 a week in the clothing business in Los Angeles.

Youth Injured In R. C. Crash

Bernard Cesario, 12, is in a serious condition in the San Mateo County Community Hospital today after the bicycle he was riding collided with an automobile driven by Thomas W. Wade, 570 Donohue St., Palo Alto, at Elm and Spring Sts., late Monday afternoon.

Bernard is suffering from internal injuries and possible head injuries, hospital attendants reported.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Cesario, 711 Elm St.

Supervisors May Elect Alvin Hatch

Possibility was seen this week that Supervisor Alvin S. Hatch of Half Moon Bay may be chosen the new chairman of the San Mateo County Board of Supervisors when the board meets next Tuesday.

Supervisor Hatch said Wednesday he certainly would consider the chairmanship if it were offered him.

"I have always felt I would like to have a shot at the chairmanship before I retire from the board," Hatch declared.

Hatch has been a member of the board eight years.

It was Hatch who nominated Supervisor Edward R. McDonald of Burlingame as temporary chairman of the board upon the resignation of Fred E. Beer, who was named to the county controller's post.

Supervisors Martin A. Poss of San Mateo and Henry W. Edmonds of Redwood City, newest members of the board, hold the key to the selection of the permanent chairman.

Poss, San Mateo florist who was appointed supervisor last week by Governor Warren, said he would decide at next Tuesday's caucus session for whom he will vote for chairman.

"I have discussed the selection of a chairman with no one," Poss declared. "I am satisfied with McDonald. However, I will decide at the caucus meeting."

Supervisor Edmonds could not be contacted today to determine who he favors for the permanent chairman.

It was believed that Supervisor Thomas L. Hickey of South San Francisco would cast his vote for McDonald.

The belief was expressed in some quarters that McDonald, a Burlingame druggist, would not vote for himself for the post. If that were the case, a vote from Hickey, Poss or Edmonds would be sufficient to swing the post to Hatch.

Drag Bay For Man Who Wasn't There

The bay near the San Mateo-Hayward Bridge was dragged by coast guardsmen for four hours Sunday in search of an unidentified seaman who was reportedly hurled into the water when the automobile in which he was riding with two other persons crashed into a guard railing.

Dragging operations were halted after the navy concluded the sailor was not in the bay, but probably safe at his post. The search for the sailor started after Seaman J. L. Quinland of Camp Parks, a witness to the crash, reported a door flew open and he thought the unidentified seaman was thrown into the bay.

Seaman 1/c Al J. Kendrick, 21, passenger in the wrecked car, however, declared the seaman for whom the coast guardsmen were dragging the bay had climbed out of the wreck and hitchhiked another ride.

Herbert E. Bissel of Oakland, driver of the vehicle which crashed late Saturday night, was treated at Mills Memorial Hospital in San Mateo for scalp lacerations and elbow injuries. Kendrick was treated at Tanforan Naval Base for minor injuries.

The accident occurred on the Alameda County side of the bay bridge, the California Highway Patrol here reported.

Lt. Billy A. Davis Ends 60 Missions

Now awaiting reassignment at the AAF Redistribution Station in Santa Monica, Lt. Billy A. Davis of Redwood City completed 60 missions over the rough mountainous areas of New Guinea and the Netherlands East Indies in an unarmed plane before he got close to Jap combat tactics.

He was on the ground when a bomb from a Jap plane came so close that it blew him into a nearby split trench.

Graduated from San Jose State College in 1941, he entered the army in December of that year, and after a year's training in Texas, was sent to the South Pacific where he flew supplies to forward areas.

His father, Thomas J. Davis, resides at 446 Vera Ave., Redwood City, and his wife, Virginia, lives in Sunnyvale.

Peterson Junks Plan To Switch Youth Home Site

Selection of a site for the proposed new county juvenile home, which has been hanging fire for months, fell into the middle of the blaze when County Exec. Frederick Peterson junked the proposal he had recommended a month ago for an exchange of property and declared he now favors the erection of a new home on the site of the present building on lower Broadway.

Peterson blamed the delay on the part of the board of supervisors to approve the property exchange for altering his decision.

He said that immediate erection of a juvenile home is necessary and in order to avoid any further delay asked that the present site be used for the proposed $100,000 home.

Two reasons other than the delay were seen as causing Peterson's sudden change of mind regarding the exchange, however:

1. The charge made at a meeting of the San Mateo County Probation Committee Tuesday afternoon by Winfield Scott of the Civic League that there was a possibility of a scandal if the exchange deal went through.

2. The advice from Dist. Atty. Gilbert D. Ferrell's office that there could be no outright exchange; that the county property on which the home is now located would have to be auctioned if it were sold at all.

The probation committee recommended last month that the present site on lower Broadway be exchanged for 8½ acres of property at Spring and Willow Sts., and this met with the approval of Juvenile Court Judge A. R. Cotton, who makes the selection of the home. County Executive Peterson recommended to the board of supervisors on Mar. 20 that the transfer of property be approved.

The supervisors postponed action on the matter at the Mar. 20 meeting and at the Apr. 3 meeting, when it was postponed until next Tuesday's meeting. The postponements came after supervisors expressed their desire to study the proposal more thoroughly.

The probation committee Tuesday afternoon passed a resolution to be send to Judge Cotton, which read:

"We have been awaiting the selection of a new site for the proposed juvenile home, that the need for the new home is very urgent and that if another site was not readily available, the committee would suggest the erection of the building on the present site."

The motion was made by J. Ed McClelland and seconded by Mrs. Theresa Altieri. It was adopted unanimously by the committee.

"I agree with the recommendation of the probation committee that the immediate erection of a juvenile home is necessary and in order to avoid any delay, that the present site be used," Peterson said.

Scott failed to elaborate on his statement at Tuesday's meeting that there was a "possibility of a scandal" if the exchange deal went through, contending that the probation committee was not involved.

Only other basis he gave reporters today for his allegation was that he did not believe the proposed site at Spring and Willow Sts. was worth the $2500 an acre at which it had been appraised.

L. A. Heiner, county right-of-way agent, said the value of the present juvenile home site, exclusive of 84-foot frontage on Broadway on which the county agricultural commissioner's office is located, is appraised at $17,100. He said the Spring and Willow St. property was appraised at $2500 an acre. The county had planned to acquire 8½ acres.

Heiner said it was his opinion that the site at Spring and Willow Sts. was of greater value than the site of the present home.

Swindle Artists Operating Here

Redwood City housewives were warned today by the chamber of commerce to be on the look-out for men who are operating here fictitiously representing San Francisco refrigeration and electrical companies and claiming to be refrigeration agents and repair men.

One local citizen reports that a man representing a San Francisco concern swindled her out of $167.50.

Local authorities and several organizations in San Francisco are investigating this new swindle racket, chamber of commerce officials report.

Supt. A. C. Argo of Sequoia High School has been appointed to a special committee which will study patterns of affiliation with the University of California, Forrest Murdock, president of the association of secondary school principals of California, announced today.

Taken prisoner near Frankfurt during the Belgian bulge, Butterfield has sent home one postcard since his capture and requested a package of vitamin capsules.

He was associated with his father in the auction business before entering the service. His wife and young daughter make their home in San Francisco. He is the cousin of Mr. S. A. Fryer of San Carlos.

Carrot Crop Crushed in Crash

The Easter Bunny visited Brisbane a week too soon.

For had he arrived Sunday he would have beheld a sight to warm the heart of any rabbit.

A literal mountain of carrots was dumped on the Bayshore Hwy. when a truck and trailer driven by Russell A. Simpson, 22, of 2272 Stillman St., Selma, overturned near the Brisbane intersection, California State Highway patrolmen reported Monday.

Simpson, who escaped injury, told patrolmen he was forced to swerve his truck to avoid hitting another car, and in so doing, the carrot-laden truck overturned.

S/Sgt. Ted Thompson Prisoner of Germans

Word that S/Sgt. Ted Thompson of Menlo Park is a prisoner of war in Germany was received yesterday by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Thompson of 431 Encina Ave. On Dec. 9, Thompson was reported missing in action.

The 18-year-old infantry sergeant went overseas in late October. A graduate of Sequoia High School with the class of '43, Thompson entered the ASTP program in December, 1943. He took his basic training at Fort Benning, Ga.

He has a brother, Oscar, who is a junior engineering student at Stanford University and a sister, Serena, a freshman at San Jose State College.

Junior College Center For Canning Training

San Mateo Junior College this week is the center of a training school for operators and instructors in the community canning program, with men and women present from all parts of Northern California from Eureka to Monterey. The canning school is being conducted by the State Bureau of Agricultural Education and the State Department of Public Health, assisted by the staff of the junior college canning center which last year led all the canning centers of the whole state.

Operators and instructors must pass a rigid training program before being licensed to operate the community canneries.

Leader Asks Clothing For Needy

"According to reports from war zones the lack of clothing, bedding and shoes among civilians is appalling," Chmn. Francis Britschgi of the Redwood City Clothing Collection Committee for the nation-wide United Nations drive, said today.

"In Leyte, the Japs took everything. Most of the people are almost naked. In Greece, Poland, Yugoslavia and Czechslovakia, the people do not have enough clothing to keep warm. A pair of shoes in Greece made of synthetic substance which falls to pieces after five miles of walking costs $2.20.

"In Poland, four families living in a single room, unheated and windowless, are obliged to share one another's garments," Britschgi reports. "The very lives of these people depend upon the prompt filling of their clothing needs," he added.

Receiving stations have been set up at Sequoia High School and the following grammar schools: Carmel, McKinley, John Gill, Lincoln, Central, Washington and Garfield. Firehouse No. 1 on Middlefield Rd. and Firehouse No. 2 at Myrtle and Jefferson are also collecting stations.

Churches at which clothing receptacles will be placed include the First Baptist at Hudson and Grand; Congregational, Jefferson and Middlefield; Redeemer Lutheran at Jefferson and Clinton; Mt. Carmel, Katherine and Grand; First Methodist, Birch and Broadway; Full Gospel, 473 Roosevelt; North Fair Oaks Community, Third and Middlefield; Episcopal, Clinton near Broadway and the Lighthouse Mission, 145 Hemlock St.

In the surrounding areas, clothing will be received at the Woodside Community Church and the Firehouse at Woodside; the garage at the home of Mrs. H. R. Royer, 2170 Oak Knoll Drive, Emerald Lake, and the home of Mrs. E. J. Crowley, Palomar Drive, Palomar Park.

Posters announcing hours that clothing will be received will be placed at the churches. Garments may be left at the schools Monday through Friday and at the fire stations anytime during the day or night. Infants' wear, boys', girls', men's and women's clothing, bedding and shoes are most urgently needed.

Taxpayers Group Fights Proposed Aid Measure

The 1266 old age aid case load in San Mateo County for February could double shortly after the close of the war and the approximately $708,000 which will be paid in aid to the aged in the county during 1944-45 could more than double if Assembly Bill 23, the proposal to repeal the provision requiring responsible relatives to contribute to the support of needy parents which recently passed the state assembly, is not defeated in the senate, California Taxpayers' Assn. said today.

Two factors would cause the load to double: the greater number of people who will go on the rolls as war demands for older workers lessen and the people who would accept aid upon the elimination of the legal requirement that financially able relatives contribute to their care.

Business Property In South S. F. Sold

Business property at 388 Grand Ave., South San Francisco, has been purchased by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kanzee Jr. from Attilio DeMartini for an estimated price of $46,500. Stores are now housed in the buildings, according to Peninsula Title Guaranty Co., which requested the recording of the deed.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rusalem have purchased 132.89 acres of the Buri Buri Rancho west of Baden, South San Francisco, from Title Insurance & Guaranty Co. for an indicated price of $32,500. The same property last week was deeded by grant to the Title Insurance & Guaranty Co. by Christ's Chruch of the Golden Rule, of which Arthur L. Bell, called "The Voice" of Mankind United, is president. The deed was recorded at request of San Mateo County Title Co.

Birth Increase Noted In County

There were 48 more births in San Mateo County last month than during the month of March, 1944, according to County Recorder T. C. Rice. There were 165 births recorded last month, compared to 117 for the same period last year.

Last month 106 marriages were recorded, 87 in March of last year. Deaths dropped from 120 in March, 1944, to 111 last month.

Rice's office recorded 304 Federal Housing Authority trust deeds last month.

Youth Home Plan Speeded

The San Mateo County Probation Committee has a full membership of seven today with the appointment by Juvenile Court Judge Aylett R. Cotton of Police Chief Robert E. O'Brien of San Mateo to fill the unexpired term of Judge Edward I. McAuliffe of Redwood City, who resigned.

Chief O'Brien was seated at Tuesday afternoon's meeting of the committee.

Meantime, Edward H. Cosgriff, chairman of the committee, said the group might pass a resolution urging Judge Cotton to take steps to expedite the proposed property exchange matter so the new juvenile home can be built at the earliest possible time.

The committee apparently has become impatient at the delay on the part of the board of supervisors in approving the exchange of the property on which the present home is located on lower Broadway for an eight-acre site at Spring and Willow Sts. The supervisors at their meeting last Tuesday postponed action until their meeting next Tuesday.

The committee had planned to rebuild on the present site, but agreed upon an exchange of property following objections of business people who contended its erection would be detrimental to future business development on lower Broadway.

Judge Cotton, commenting on the appointment of Chief O'Brien to the committee, pointed out that O'Brien had attended the FBI school at Washington, D. C., and had received advanced instruction on up-to-date methods of handling delinquency. He also said he believed police officers should be represented on the body.

Cosgriff declared that O'Brien has done a good job in juvenile delinquency work in San Mateo. His term expires Jan. 16, 1947.

O'Brien's appointment was the fourth made by Judge Cotton in the past five months. Other recent appointments were J. Ed McClellan, Burlingame attorney; Lowry S. Howard, president of the Menlo School and Junior College, and Mrs. Barbara W. Lundborg of Atherton, wife of Louis B. Lundborg, manager of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce.

Other members of the committee are Cosgriff, Henry C. Hall and Mrs. Theresa Altieri.

Sailor Arrested On Assault Charge

Aubrey R. Andrews, 23, a sailor from Tanforan, was returned to the custody of navy officials Monday following his arrest by Redwood City police on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon.

Andrews, police said, and Burton E. Smith, another sailor, were engaged in a fight near Middlefield Rd. and Main St. Sunday at 12:30 a.m.

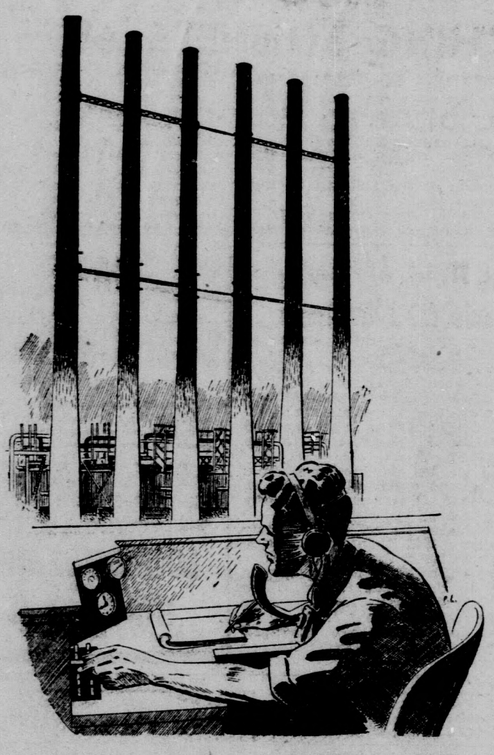
Employing a pocket jack knife, Andrews slashed Smith across the back, cutting through the sailor's pea jacket and blouse.

Pair Injured In Accidents

A sailor stationed at Tanforan was injured at 8:55 p.m. Saturday when he was struck on El Camino Real at Lomita Park by an automobile driven by Joseph W. Lewis, 41, South San Francisco, who was driving north. The sailor, Stanley Kristensen, 24, was taken to the Tanforan Naval Hospital for treatment. Lewis was not held, the California Highway Patrol reported.

Lena Curcio, 32, of Mountain View, was treated at South San Francisco Hospital for minor injuries suffered near midnight Saturday when an automobile driven by Mary M. Bauman, 32, of Oakland, and a truck driven by Hugh A. Jacobs, 19, stationed at the Belmont Armory of the State Guard, collided at the intersection of Bayshore Hwy. and San Bruno Rd.

More than 12,300 New York state dairy herds are enrolled in the Brang's disease control program.



CALL UP THE RESERVES!

Standby Electric Power Wins Industrial Battles

HIGH up in an Oakland office building sits the P. G. and E. System Load Dispatcher. His role is that of a General directing operations from his Supreme Headquarters. He marshals an army of electric generating stations much as the military commander masses his divisions of men and armor.

On the front line are the 52 interconnected hydroelectric powerhouses of the system with a total capacity of 1,450,521 horsepower.

Held in reserve are 13 steam operated stations, big fellows most of them, ready to move into action at any time with additional electric forces totaling 853,384 horsepower capacity.

If storm, seasonal water shortage, or any other mischance puts one or more hydro stations temporarily out of commission or if demand at peak hours grows too heavy for the hydro plants to carry, the reserve steam plants are called up at the critical moment.

That's Standby, our insurance to Industry, to all our customers, that service everywhere shall be uninterrupted and adequate.

Standby, the reserves that frequently win the industrial fight against costly shutdowns, idle manpower and machinery.

Standby, the extra system capacity which has enabled this Company to meet every wartime demand for power. Isolated generating plants, lacking this protection, cannot equal this record.

S. M. Vote Errors Found

A partial recount in the San Mateo city election will be necessary, it appeared after Monday night's canvass of the vote by the San Mateo City Council disclosed several errors in the election tally sheets.

Election by the councilmen of the new mayor scheduled for Monday was postponed for a week after discovery of the election errors.

Tally sheets from five of the city's 26 consolidated election precincts showed discrepancies it was discovered during the canvass. In several cases the total yes and no vote on the bond issue proposition exceeded the number of ballots cast in the affected precinct.

On the motion of Councilman Richard McAllister, official adoption by the council of a resolution declaring the election results together with the election of a mayor, was postponed until next Monday night's council meeting.

San Mateo voters last week re-elected incumbent Councilmen Creed Haberlin, Edward J. Reilly, and Carrol Speers, and defeated an $820,000 bond issue for postwar civic improvement.

Meanwhile, Mayor Claude J. Hirschey — whose re-election as mayor last night seemed assured— revealed informally after Monday night's meeting that he will not run again for city councilman when his term expires, in 1947. The mayor said that the pressure of private business is too great to permit him to seek civic office again.

Quaint Name

"Hallelujah" is a popular European name for the wood sorrel, of the geranium family. This name is due to the fact that the plant flowers betwen Easter and Whitsuntide.

Signal Corps Photo

"Keep your head down, Allemand," was a favorite song with the AEF in World War I. The gist was that Jerry would "never see his father in the Fatherland" if he didn't. It's true of the sons of the first AEF who also can do some plain and fancy shooting. Back 'em up with War Bonds.

Red Cross Swimming Class To Open

Redwood City children will have an opportunity to learn to swim beginning this Saturday afternoon, under the sponsorship of the Red Cross, Clyde Devine, chairman of water safety and life saving for the local Red Cross, announced today.

Instruction will be open to all local children at the Sequoia High School pool beginning Saturday and continuing every Saturday through June 16. Ray Dimick, physical education teacher at Sequoia, will supervise the classes.

The Fifth Annual Pre-Camp Swimming Campaign is being conducted by the Redwood City Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, YMCA, and the Tribune carriers. Children may sign up with these organizations at their headquarters before Saturday, Devine said.

Approximately 500 local boys and girls learned to swim during last year's campaign. A registration fee of $1 will be charged for those who sign up. Boys will swim from 1 to 3 p.m., girls from 3 to 5 p.m.

1945 Drive Here Exceeds $60,000

Mrs. William A. Baxter, Red Cross campaign chairman, informed the executive board Tuesday morning that the Redwood City Chapter had oversubscribed its 1945 War Fund quota by 25 per cent. Total on hand today was $61,513.51, plus $670 in pledges.

She pointed out that the Menlo Park-Atherton branch nearly doubled its $15,000 quota, turning in over $27,000.

James Thornton, chapter chairman, said in his opinion the public's response to the war fund appeal was a tribute to the capable manner in which Red Cross workers had fulfilled their appointed tasks.

Dr. Thornton announced that the blood donor service would move to the First Baptist Church next Saturday.

The executive board voted $230 for a new stove for the Red Cross Canteen, and another $200 for liquid and solid food containers to supplant the motor canteen sold last year.

It was announced that the annual meeting will be held Apr. 26 at the city hall, following a joint dinner meeting of the executive board and advisory council.

Judge Dismisses 'Family Brawl'

Terming the affair a "family brawl," Police Judge John G. Smith Wednesday dismissed charges of disturbing the peace against Belmont Police Officer Stanley H. Botto, his estranged wife, Lillian Botto, and Ray Miller, Belmont city employe.

The three were named in a complaint signed by Mrs. Joe Belotti who lives across the street from the Botto residence on East Ralston Ave., after a disturbance on Apr. 4.

Mrs. Belotti Wednesday morning told Judge Smith she had no objections to the dismissal.

Judge Smith declared he would let the higher court settle the dispute, referring to divorce proceedings pending in superior court.

Second Son Becomes War Victim

Sgt. Norman Dahlin, 19, son of Capt. and Mrs. Walter Dahlin, 631 Upland Dr., is missing in action in the European theater, the War Department has informed his parents.

Sergeant Dahlin, who entered the army air force in January, 1944, and left for overseas duty early this year, had made several trips over Germany. He was a waist gunner. The War Department reported he has been missing since Mar. 18. Sergeant Dahlin, who was a graduate of Palo Alto High School, had been based in England.

This was the second War Department message the Dahlins have received regarding their two sons in service. Lt. Walter O. Dahlin, 23, was seriously wounded in Holland on Feb. 25 and is now recuperating in a hospital in England. He was with the 58th Armored Infantry battalion. He was hit by a rifle bullet which went through his neck down into his intestines.

His wife, the former Patricia Tangemann, is a student at Stanford University. Lieutenant Dahlin was graduated from San Jose State College in 1941. He also went overseas early this year. Captain and Mrs. Dahlin received a letter from him yesterday in which he stated he hoped to be able to return to the United States by June.

Captain Dahlin is stationed at Camp Knight, Oakland. Walter and Norman Dahlin have a sister, Marylin, who is a student at Sequoia High School.

PFC George Dallara Wounded in France

PFC George P. Dallara, a machine gunner with the Seventh Army, was wounded in France on Mar. 15 when shrapnel struck him in the face, his mother has been informed.

Dallara, listed on Wednesday's War Department casualty list, is currently hospitalized in France. He has been awarded the Purple Heart for his wounds.

Graduated from Sequoia High School in June, 1943, the 20-year-old infantryman entered the army in August of that year, receiving an assignment to the tank corps.

Later transferring to the air forces, he was stationed at Washington University in St. Louis, Mo., for a time before reassignment to the infantry.

He went overseas in September, 1944.

He is the son of Mrs. Julia Dallara of 428 Garden St., East Palo Alto.

Menlo Park City Council Discusses Dibble Annexation

The major topics of discussion on the agenda of Tuesday's Menlo Park City Council were communications received from Lt. Col. T. W. E. Christmas concerning the housing problem and the annexation of Dibble Hospital by the City of Menlo Park.

Mayor Donald Fisher reported that he received the following reply from Lieutenant Colonel Christmas regarding the council's recent request that the Dibble Hospital authorities take immediate steps to furnish housing to visitors to the hospital:

". . . There is a definite housing need in this community caused by the capacity of this hospital. . . . Our position is such that we cannot request housing officially. It is hoped that this delineates our position here at Dibble General Hospital insofar as the problem is concerned. It is sincerely hoped that you, through your office, may find a solution."

In regard to the annexation of the hospital by Menlo Park, Lieutenant Colonel Christmas said that it would require an "Act of Congress" to make this possible. He added: "It is the opinion of this headquarters that there would not be enough material benefit to justify the annexation."

The council voted to present the two problems to Congressman Jack Anderson for further action.

Horace Siino appeared before the council to request permission to install an underground gas tank on his property at 1001 Santa Cruz Ave.

Augustus Locke reported that at a recent meeting of the Menlo Park Planning Commission representatives from various civic organizations recommended that a recreation building be constructed in the postwar era.

The council authorized the street superintendent to apply for a priority to purchase a new truck for use in the street department.

Security of J-M Jobholders

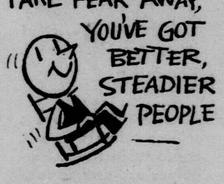
Many companies, these days, invest a lot of dough to provide for the present and future security of their jobholders and their families.

This isn't exactly sentimental. And it isn't meant to be patronizing. Johns-Manville goes in for jobholder security and benefits because it helps J-M to get better jobholders and to keep them longer. Also, it's a pleasure.

For Instance?

J-M made payments of $145,140 in 1944 on life and disability insurance for J-M jobholders who elected to have this protection and who contributed $119,620 as their part of its cost. (Five jobholders who were disabled, and beneficiaries of 58 jobholders who died in 1944 received insurance payments of $177,000 under this plan.)

In 1944 J-M contributed $1,113,896 to a retirement fund for jobholders who elected to enter this plan and who were eligible and who contributed $490,996 to the fund. (At the end of the year 181 former jobholders were getting retirement income under this plan.)



J-M and its jobholders each paid $296,423 tax under the U. S. Social Security program. And J-M paid $606,211 in state and federal unemployment insurance. (Three states required employee payments of $104,589 for unemployment insurance.) And J-M spent $350,000 in 1944 to make its plants safer and more healthful, and on health and accident insurance. And $325,000 in 1944 to improve working conditions—modernizing wash and locker rooms, putting in dust and fume controls, and on cafeterias.

R. C. War Council To Handle Clothing Collection Here

Inquiries regarding details of the local clothing collection should be directed to the Redwood City War Council, Room 103, City Hall (telephone 824), Chmn. Francis Britschgi reported today.

At a meeting of the clothing committee Tuesday, Britschgi said that clothing is now accumulating at the various receiving stations and will be picked up at the end of the week for sorting and packing. Regular pick-up of clothing donated will be made weekly until the drive ends under the direction of Sanford Ratliff and John Ryan.

Floyd D. Granger will contact sorting stations at the churches during the week and arrange, with the assistance of Gene Cerqui, for packing and labeling the garments.

Beginning next week, Roy Fredlund, statistician, will publish reports of clothing poundage reported collected to date.

Local residents are urged to bring their used, wearable donations of clothing to Redwood City schools during school hours, to the fire stations at any time of day or night or to the churches at the following hours:

First Baptist Church, Chmn. Mrs. T. J. Colquehoun, Wednesday and Sunday evenings and 9:30-3:30, Thursdays.

Chamber Dinner Slated April 23

With a theme of "Then and Now," a gala spring festival dinner—the first of its kind to be presented in Redwood City—is scheduled for Mon., Apr. 23, E. W. (Ned) Butler, manager of the Redwood City Chamber of Commerce announced today.

Sponsored by the merchants' section, of which Charles Combs is chairman, the dinner will be held at Grace & Pierre's Cafe de Paris, commencing at 6:30 p.m.

A style show, featuring fashions of the present and the past, and entertainment will highlight the evening of informality, Butler said.

Under the chairmanship of Mrs. Louis Barrish, assisted by Lionel T. Berryhill and Mrs. Floyd McCue, the style show will present ensembles from local dress shops, modeled by Redwood City women.

The dinner, designed to better acquaint Redwood City merchants with one another and their merchandise, will be the first such affair ever undertaken by the chamber of commerce, Butler said.

Members of the merchants' section include Ed Kaufman, Mrs. Barrish, Robert W. Kelley, H. C. Mitchell, James W. B. Thomas, J. A. Buhler, Ray Flood, Lloyd E. Campbell, L. G. Jones, and Chairman Combs.

Gerard Grunwald Wounded in Italy

S/Sgt. Gerard B. Grunwald, formerly of Atherton, was "seriously wounded" in the Battle of Mt. Belvedere in Italy in February, his mother, Mrs. Bertrand B. Grunwald, has been informed by the War Department. He was struck in the arm by shell fragments.

He was graduated from Sequoia High School in 1941, and entered the army as a ski trooper while a student at Stanford University.

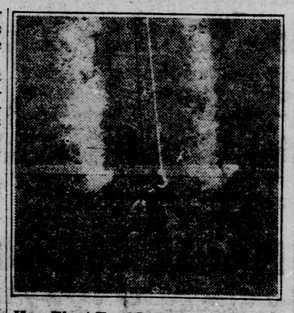
His brother, Bill, is a lieutenant in the AAF and another brother, Tom, formerly attended schools here.

Plant-Food Near Roots Gives Maximum Results

How can the amateur gardener be sure to get maximum results from the commercial plant food he applies to his garden?

Many experiments to bring out this information are constantly being made, and much new information has been developed. It was long the practice of manufacturers to recommend that plant food be broadcast on the vegetable garden, after it had been spaded and smoothed, at the rate of 4 pounds to 100 square feet, and then raked into the top soil.

The amount—4 pounds to 100 square feet—is still recommended for the average garden, and where a well balanced plant food giving all the chief nutritive elements is used; but while broadcasting it is good, a better method is to apply the plant food in bands on either side of the row in which the seeds are sown.



How Plant Food Is Applied in Bands Near Row Where Seed Is Sown.

The reason for this is that the plant requires balanced nutrition right from germination or transplanting. Certain elements do not travel very fast in the soil. Others attach themselves to soil particles and do not get to the feeding root area. It is better when making application of plant food to put it in a location where it will be more convenient for the roots.

Even nitrogen, in the form usually found in plant food, will not at once dissolve and be evenly distributed in the soil moisture though it will in time, after certain chemical changes have taken place.

The method recommended for applying plant food today, is to stretch the line to mark the row in which seeds are to be planted. Then not less than two inches away on either side, make a furrow four inches deep. Pour plant food into each furrow at the rate of one pound (or pint) for 50 feet, and cover it with earth. Then make the drill in which seed are to be sown and proceed with planting as usual.

Remember that it is possible to use too much plant food, and do not exceed the recommended application. Additional plant food should be applied later at about five or six week intervals to keep your plants growing well. And be sure to keep your bands of plant food two inches away from the seed drill, so that the soil in which seedlings are coming up will not get an overdose, which the young plants cannot handle.

The slot machines have been in the custody of authorities since they were confiscated by Chief Duncan FitzGerald of the Emerald Lake Police Dist. last Fall.

Purchase Redwoods For Sequoia Memorial

Twenty redwood trees are being purchased now by Sequoia High School for the living memorial to former students who have lost their lives in World War II, Supt. A. C. Argo said today. The trees will be planted along the Broadway side of the school, north of the main building.

Ten redwoods survive at this spot from a grove that was formerly planted there, Argo explained. The site was chosen for the memorial by the Sequoia commissioners. Gardens and a barbecue pit are also located at this site.

Cop Needs Help To Subdue Woman

One woman was too much for Officer Frank Chevalier Sunday at 5:15 p.m. when he was forced to radio for help from two fellow state highway patrolmen.

Chevalier had halted a car driven by Irwin B. Nelson, 38, a bay pilot from 2200 Leavenworth St., San Francisco, on the Bayshore Hwy. near San Mateo.

Ready to take Nelson into custody on a charge of drunken driving, Chevalier ran into interference from the arrested man's wife, Edna, who was the subject of the officer's call for aid.

Officers John Hanlon and Chester Kreiss hurried to the scene and took the couple to the San Mateo County Jail where Nelson, charged with drunken driving and Mrs. Nelson was booked on charges of drunkenness and resisting arrest.

They posted bail of $100 apiece Sunday at 11:10 p.m.

Sunday at 11:45 p.m., California State Highway Patrol officers arrested Alfred Erickson, 58-year-old stevedore from 71 Raymond St., San Francisco, at Brisbane on the Bayshore Hwy. and charged him with drunken driving, CHP records showed.

REDWOOD CITY PHONE 1300

News of Commuters

BY JOE CABOOSE

We thought the Redwood City Commuters Club was the first of its kind organized in the Bay area. Last week we learned otherwise. At the Mariner's Club luncheon Wednesday in San Francisco one Wallace D. Meracle, guest speaker, reminisced on the "last days of the ferry boats . . . and told how world affairs were settled . . . by the Alameda Commuters Club."

★ ★ ★

The club, it seems, was organized primarily "for fun," although it did go through the formalities annually of electing officers and appointing committees. Its biggest project was the annual Christmas party held during the 18-minute crossing from San Francisco. The club was not incorporated, apparently, and it went out of business simultaneously with the ferries.

★ ★ ★

As for the Redwood City club, it is still expected to solve many of the world's toughest problems, including the San Francisco traffic enigma. Mr. Knight Starr Jordan, son of the late famous educator, who (we believe) commutes from Palo Alto, addressed a letter to Pres. Stanley Perkins asking why we did not interest ourselves in "something worthwhile . . . like the abominable streetcar service from 3rd-&-Townsend."

★ ★ ★

If Mr. Jordan only knew of the "blood, sweat and tears" that a small group of Redwood City commuters put into the fight for improved service at 3rd-&-Townsend! If he knew how these Redwood City crusaders were deserted by other Peninsula commuter clubs (which folded when the going got rough), and by commuters generally who didn't seem to care how rotten the service was! We repeat, if Mr. Jordan knew the history of this battle he would applaud rather than criticize, even by indirection, the Redwood City Commuters Club.

For the record, Mr. Jordan should know that Palo Alto (and the same goes for Burlingame, San Mateo and Millbrae) was one place in which the Redwood City commuter organizers spent much time and patient effort trying to get support for the commuter movement whose number one project was "improved service at 3rd-&-Townsend." While some of the other Peninsula towns went through the motions of organizing, the P.A. boys merely gave it the cold, cultural stare; too smug to be bothered. One final tip to anyone who expects the battle-scarred martyrs of the Redwood City club to be the "whipping boys" for the errors and omissions of 40,000 other commuters: Better service will come only through united commuter effort! If any one of you want better service at 3rd-&-Townsend, or anywhere else, get busy! Get off the dime and help organize Commuters in your own community! There is no other way, take it from a veteran of "The First Battle of 3rd-&-Townsend!"

Mr. Jordan's letter of protest was not without its humorous side. He wrote: "The No. 41 car to 2nd & Market is fairly satisfactory—when it runs; but I have heard it endearingly called the 'Banana Line' because all the cars seem to come in bunches, and are never there when needed."

Caboose, thanks to generous neighbors, was able to entertain the club's directors last Tuesday night. He borrowed most of his food, a card table and a big aluminum cooker from the Curran family across the street. Yes, it's sad, but Caboose didn't even have a pot to cook his spaghetti in. Twenty directors, officers and committee chairman, plus one guest (Lloyd Lebman's son, Stewart) answered roll call, also mess call, according to Secy. Bill McKeegan.

Commuter vignettes: Roy Fredlund, chairman of the Commuters used-clothing drive, trying to talk Jack Welch out of a sport coat and unmatched paints. . . . Welch offering to swap the outfit for one of Cruse's ties. . . . Guy Harrell and Bill Dobbyn trying to make like Spring is here by showing up at the 6:50 (a.m.) without overcoats . . . br-r-r-r! . . . Howard McGee, the best dressed commuter on the 7:41. . . . Art England and Roy Cloud trying to out-talk each other in a game of pinochle. . . . Wrex Cruse, father of the "buy-your-commute-early" campaign, sneaking up to the depot ticket window early Monday a.m., Apr. 2, and whispering "To the city without Sundays." . . . Helen Morgan and Martha Brand always so cheerful and looking so fresh and lovely.

We're wiring Henry Morgenthau today to remind him that adjusted service certificates representing bonus payments to veterans of World War I, will mature June 15, (as if he didn't know), and suggesting he launch a campaign asking veterans who still have them to convert into Seventh War Loan bonds. Ed Kester of San Mateo, a Purple Heart hero of World War I, told us he saved his bonus ($1500) to put his son through college. The bonus certificates are now ripe for redemption; but where is the son who was to have entered college this Fall? For the past two years he has been a pilot in Europe fighting World War II. There is irony supreme! And something for the boys today to think about in San Francisco, starting Apr. 25.

Incidentally, Caboose cashed his service certificates within two weeks of the date of issue, in order to continue a habit formed early in life—the habit of eating—and to finish grade school which was interrupted by the war. We feel that it was worth any sacrifice to be able to read and write—and to continue eating.

Don't forget the National Old Clothes drive. Roy doesn't expect your shirt. But he'll take your coat, vest and pants!

Lt. (jg) Tom Kane Now Navy Skipper

Lt. (jg) Tom Kane has been advanced to skipper of his landing craft somewhere in the South Pacific, his mother, Mrs. Tom Kane of 153 Iris St. reported today. His father, San Mateo County controller, died recently.

The 24-year-old naval officer has been overseas for a year. He enlisted in the navy in June, 1941 and was a seaman for two years prior to receiving his ensign's commission from Treasure Island. In the Summer of 1943, he took an officers' indoctrination course at Tucson, Ariz.

A graduate of Bellarmine Preparatory School and Santa Clara University, Kane was studying for his law degree when he enlisted in the navy. He served as a yeoman second class in the offices of the cable and radio censor in San Francisco prior to his transfer to Treasure Island where he was commissioned.

His brother, John, has received a medical discharge from the Marine Corps and is residing with his mother. A sister, Lois, recently graduated from the St. Joseph's College of Nursing and at that time announced that she would enter the Army Nurse Corps.

Two Men Jailed On Drunk Charges

Arrested by Redwood City police officers on a charge of drunken driving, Will Stoughton, 51, was taken to the county jail yesterday afternoon, and his 52-year-old companion, Sidney H. J. Pugh, was booked on a charge of drunkenness.

Police, summoned to Spring St. by residents who saw the car proceeding in an erratic manner, said both men were bricklayers by occupation.

Stoughton gave his address as 645 Stanford Ave., and Pugh, a passenger in the car, said he resided at 2345 Middlefield Rd.

Chicago Fights Huge Lumber Fire

CHICAGO (AP) — For the first time since the eight million dollar stockyards fire of 1934, every piece of fire department apparatus was in service yesterday as flames swept through coal and lumber yards in separate sections of the city. Some 500 firemen were called out to fight the conflagrations, and 11 were injured or suffered burns.

The biggest fire was at the Red River Lumber Co. on the South Side, damage estimates ranging from $500,000 to $3,000,000.

The earliest known system of written laws was the code of Hammurabi, king of Babylonia, which were promulgated about 2350 B.C.

Submarine Lost In Pacific Action

WASHINGTON (AP)—The submarine Scamp and a large support landing craft have been lost in the Pacific, the navy announced today.

The submarine was reported overdue from patrol and presumed lost, and the LCS (L) (3)—49 was lost in the Philippines as the result of enemy action.

Normal complement of a submarine is about 65 officers and men and of a landing craft of the type about 45.

There was no report of casualties on the landing craft.

Roy C. Dunaway Wins Promotion

Promotion from private first class to sergeant somewhere in Germany where Roy C. Dunaway of Redwood City is serving as assistant squad leader with the Second Infantry Division, 38th Regiment, was announced today from the ETO.

Dunaway, son of Mrs. Addie Dunaway of 2897 El Camino Real, recently received the Combat Infantryman Badge. He has participated in the Normandy, Northern France and German campaigns.

SEEK ADMINISTRATION

Parents of Charles Paul Peri, of 32 Ninth Ave., San Mateo, who was killed in action in the Philippine Commonwealth on Feb. 13 of this year, today filed a petition in superior court here for letters of administration of his estate. Peri was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Massimo Peri. The estate is valued at less than $3000.

The sweet potato was named "yam" by the Negroes, who coming to America in the early days, named the tuber after the "nyam" or true yam they had eaten in Africa.

Supplies Standardized

Combat men on battle fronts where the army, navy and marines are fighting together will use increasingly similar equipment wherever possible, with interchangeable parts, in order to save each service branch from having to carry complete inventories of supplies. The resultant conservation of manpower, materials, facilities, and the taxpayer's dollar, are of great benefit to the producing industries, as well as to the services.

Fat Goes Into Sulfa

Our boys get sulfa drugs and ammunition when you save used kitchen fat. And remember how much our boys need all the help they can get from you. Save every drop of used cooking fat. Turn it over to the meat dealer for cash and extra ration points.

Named Candytuft

Candytuft, a plant, gets its name from Candia, an old English name for the island of Crete, from which the seeds were carried to England in the 16th century.

Foreign Dishes with an American Accent

For variety and zest why not prepare the famous dishes of other countries? You'll find they offer subtle, delicate flavor . . . appealing to the whole family. Here are three recipes for famous international dishes, none of which makes inroads on your ration books.

RUSSIAN BORSCH

- 2 lbs. beef stew meat
- 2½ tsps. salt
- ½ tsp. allspice
- 4 cups coarsely grated raw beets
- ¼ cup lemon juice
- ½ cup finely diced green pepper or cut parsley
- 1 cup finely diced onion
- 2 cups thinly sliced celery
- 2 cups canned tomatoes
- 3 cups finely shredded cabbage

Slowly cook meat with salt and allspice in cold water to cover 3 hours. Strain; measure broth, adding enough water to make 4 cups. Combine grated beets and lemon juice. Cook green pepper, onion and celery in just enough boiling water to cover 15 minutes; add cabbage, beets and tomatoes; cook 15 minutes longer. Drain vegetables thoroughly; add vegetables to broth; heat to boiling. Serve with whipped or plain sour cream; sprinkle with parsley. Serves 6 generously.

CHINESE FRIED RICE

- 3 slices bacon or salt pork
- 3 cups cooked rice
- 2 tbsps. finely diced onion
- 2 tbsps. finely diced green pepper
- 2 eggs
- 1 tbsp. soy sauce
- ½ tsp. salt
- ¼ tsp. pepper

Saute finely diced bacon or salt pork in hot frying pan until crisp. Add rice; cook 10 minutes, stirring constantly. Add onion and pepper; cook 2 minutes longer. Combine well beaten eggs with soy sauce and seasonings; add to rice mixture; cook until eggs are set, stirring constantly. Serve hot. Serves 6.

MEXICAN CHILI BEANS

- 2 cups dried pink or red beans
- 2 medium-size onions
- 1 large green pepper or 2 small chili peppers
- 1 bud garlic
- 3½ cups cooked tomatoes
- 1 tbsp. salt
- 1 to 2 tbsps. chili powder

Pick over beans; wash; place beans in large kettle; add water to cover; partly cover kettle. Cook slowly 1 hour. Add sliced onions, peppers, minced garlic, tomatoes, and salt. Continue cooking slowly about 2 hours longer, or until beans are tender but still hold their shape. Add more water as needed to keep beans well covered with liquid. Add chili powder to taste just before serving. Serves 6 generously.
